

MATEUS SANTOLOUCO

Mateus is waiting...

Waiting for the fake alien invasion. For the next false flag event. Waiting for the walls to crumble, the corrupt to fall and the economic system to collapse. Waiting for the revolution to rise and the war pigs to crawl and beg mercy for their sins.

While Mateus waits, Santolouco makes comics. Comics like 2 Guns, published by Boom! Studios and written by Steven Grant, which is now a Hollywood movie with Mark Wahlberg and Denzel Washington. Like Dial H from DC Comics, written by the award winning english writer China Miéville and the ongoing series of IDW's Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles written by Tom Waltz, Bobby Curnow and Kevin Eastman.

Sometimes Santolouco not only illustrates but writes his comics as well. Mondo Urbano, for example, co-created with Eduardo Medeiros and Rafael Albuquerque and published by Oni Press Publishing. Not to mention the TMNT miniseries "The Secret History of the Foot Clan" in which he created the origins of the Turtles' arch enemy, the Shredder, for the IDW continuity with co-script by Erik Burnhan.

Mateus Santolouco is waiting and creating comics like the little short thing you are about to read.

Have fun and...
